If reports are to be believed Karan Johar has become a father through surrogacy. Yes, Bollywood fans' favourite filmmaker is now a father of twins – a boy and a girl. TOI confirms the news and quotes BMC executive health officer Dr Padmaja Keskar saying that the birth registrations were done on Friday. The names of the kids have been registered with BMC. A blind item carried by SpotboyE reports the same and calls Karan a filmmaker whose "life has always been matter of discussion and conjecture," – and let us not forget that 'conjecture' is KJo's favourite word. Other clues also point at Karan Johar. According to the report on TOI, the birth registration details of the babies do not mention the mother's name. The twins were born at Masrani Hospital in Andheri (West) on February 7.

At the launch of his book, An Unsuitable Boy, Karan had talked about his paternal instincts. "For me, a child means an old-age insurance policy. I have a nurturing quality in me. I saw that when I launched Alia, Varun and Sid in Student of the Year. I can't let go of them even now. I see myself staring at them to see what they are doing and how they are doing. I am very strongly paternal. My paternal instincts need to be acted upon. My love needs a release. I love everyone. I don't express my love enough, but the love within me needs a platform as a parent" he had said. Who knew that he was hinting at his future for real.

because I live in a country where I could possibly be jailed for saying this. which is why I Karan Johar will not say the three words that possibly everybody knows about me." he writes.

Interestingly, at the launch of the latest reality show he is judging he looked more inclined towards the idea of not having kids. "When you have no wife and kids, you get almost eight hours free to your credit... so I get a chance to do a lot of things," he said while talking to Deccan Chronicle.

We are really happy for Karan Johar, and wish him all the happiness in the world.

 Karan Johar is an inspiration for those who have a lot of dreams and desires, however, they don't know how to follow their instincts. What ever he does it's with lot of conviction and when there is conviction one never fails. people may take some of his decisions not so successful, for instance acting but i believe that is also an achievement for him. I am sure he will be the best father.
