Karan-Johar-becomes-father-of-twins-through-surrogacy

In his biography titled “The Unsuitable Boy” Bollywood filmmaker Karan Johar revealed his intention of being a parent. The film maker announced that he had become father to twins – a boy and a girl – through surrogacy. The actor took to twitter to introduce Roohi and Yash and called them “the two most wonderful additions to my life”. The boy is named after Karan’s father Yash, and the girl’s name is a rearrangement of his mother’s name Hiroo.

Karan tweeted that his mother will be an integral part of the children’s upbringing along with “friends who are family”. Johar joins a minuscule list celebrity single parents like Sushmita Sen and Tusshar Kapoor

Wishes poured in from celebrities and fans who congratulated him on his newfound parenthood.

 "I am ecstatic to share with you all the two most wonderful additions to my life, my children and lifelines; Roohi and Yash. I feel enormously blessed to be a parent to these pieces of my heart. Switch to welcome (edit)
 I was welcomed into this world with the help of the marvels of medical science.

This was an emotional yet well thought out decision which I have taken after considering all the responsibilities and duties that come with being a parent. In order to arrive at this decision, I have prepared myself mentally, physically, emotionally and logistically to ensure that my children get all the unconditional love, care and attention from me and mine. I have submitted to the fact that my children are my world and priority. My work, travels and social commitments would have to take a back seat and I am prepared for that. By the grace of God, I have the most caring and supportive mother who will be an integral part in the up-bringing of her grandchildren and of course, friends who are family.

I am eternally grateful to the surrogate who has fulfilled my lifeless dream and provided a warm loving and nurturing

Karan Johar
