Karan Johar has become a single father of twins – a baby boy and girl – who were born through surrogacy and the filmmaker says he is “enormously blessed” to be a parent. Johar, 44, has named his daughter Roohi and his son Yash, after his late father Yash Johar.

“I am ecstatic to share with you all the two most wonderful additions to my life, my children and lifelines; Roohi and Yash. I feel enormously blessed to be a parent to these pieces of my heart who were welcomed into this world with the help of the marvels of medical science,” Johar said in a statement.

decision which he has taken considering all the responsibilities and duties that come with being a parent.

“In order to arrive at this decision, I have prepared myself mentally, physically, emotionally and logistically to ensure that my children get all the unconditional love, care and attention from me and mine. I have submitted to the fact that my children are my world and priority.”

Johar says his work, travels and social commitments will have to take a back seat after the arrival of his kids and he is prepared for that.

“By the grace of God, I have the most caring and supportive mother who will be an integral part in the up-bringing of her grandchildren and of course, friends who are family,” he says.
